THE ARRIVAL OF REVD.
GEORGE FROST TO OUR BENEFICE

As we enter July the Benefice welcomes the arrival of the Reverend George Frost. He begins to move into his home at the Rectory in Aynho this week and then prepares for the special service of his 'Institution and Induction' by the Bishop on Monday 22nd July. The next fortnight is all about his personal preparation and Reverend George cannot (is not allowed) to do any work for us in the Parishes or the Benefice until 23rd July. From that day he will be busy - his very first job is to lead the School Leavers' service at All Saints, Croughton.

There will be more information in the weeks ahead. One additional point this week. Everyone in the Benefice is welcome to attend the 'Institution and Induction Service' on 22nd July - no invitation is required. There are refreshments after in Aynho Village Hall.
